Enthusiasm for Porter.

FLORENCE, A. T., Oct. 6.—Judge Porter arrived here yesterday and was enthusiastically received. In the evening there were bonfires, and the town was thoroughly aroused.
A large audience gathered at the court house and filed in the building overhead. Judge Porter discussed well, and fully, all the issues of the campaign, showing clearly the necessity of our being represented by an active and energetic voice. The speaker was frequently interrupted by applause.
Porter's strength in the evening discussion was a surprise to many.
The probabilities are that he will have a majority in our county. The people are greatly dissatisfied with Gury's record. I. B. Goodwin followed with a few apt and sprightly remarks, after which, in response to loud calls, J. W. Davis, candidate for justice, Councilman from Pima and Pinal counties, made a short and stirring speech.

Marshal Tidball is in charge of them. Prisoners will be tried here before the United States district court. Chief George, sub-chief of the Apaches, is among them. They are supplied with all the comforts afforded any county prisoners. The party came by trail the entire journey, as Apaches were on the road between San Carlos and Bowie, nearest the railroad station, swearing they would rescue the prisoners, and the guard of United States troops was inadequate to contend with a hundred braves.

Editor's Letter of Acceptance.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Judge Folger has written his letter of acceptance of the nomination. He refers to the reports of improper action by which his nomination was secured, but holds that the convention was properly conducted, and that he declined either the State Committee would appoint a nominee which would be no gain to the people or a new convention would have to be called and for that there is not time enough before the election.

YUMA, Oct. 4.—Governor Tuller arrived yesterday to hold an investiing the other Commissioners, who resided at a distant part of the Terri-

Third, That said D. Neahr did
